

Verb	Meaning	Example
get off	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. To leave (bus, train, plane)</li> <li>2. To remove</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. You should get off the train in Kings Heath.</li> <li>2. I can't get the ink stain off my shirt.</li> </ol>
get on	To board (bus, train, plane)	I'm trying to get on the flight to Brussels.
get on with (something)	To continue to do; make progress	After they split up, she had a hard time getting on with her life.
get on (well) with (somebody)	To have a good relationship with	He doesn't get on very well with the other members of the committee.
get out	To leave	He had a hard time getting out of Newark because of the snow?
get out of	To avoid doing something	Edna's trying to get out of working the night shift.
get over	To recover from (illness, disappointment)	Has she gotten over the flu?
get over	To recover from (illness, disappointment)	Mary had the chickenpox last week but she got over it.
get rid of	To eliminate	Please get rid of that old t-shirt. It's so ragged.
get together	To meet each other	Let's get together for your birthday on Saturday.
get up	To rise, leave bed	Will you please get up? You've got a class in 20 minutes.
give in	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. To cease opposition; yield</li> <li>2. To hand in; submit</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. We will never give in to the terrorists' demands.</li> <li>2. I'll give in my paper tomorrow.</li> </ol>
give up	To stop doing something	Morris gave up drinking 10 years ago.
go through	To experience	Andy went through a lot of pain after his mother died.
grow up	To spend one's childhood; develop; become an adult	He's like Peter Pan. He never really grew up at all.